

Villa Being ARNOS VALE

An elegy to seaside serenity, this magical Caribbean Baroque villa crowns a dramatic ridge 55m above the sea, in the 'Secret Mountain Estate' - a 2.5-hectare organic farm rich with fruit and flowering trees, near Arnos Vale in south-west Tobago.

Designed as a series of pavilions, linked by sea-view dining patios and a cliff-side pool, 'Being' blends sleek, white, modern Mediterranean and romantic Dutch architecture with dashes of Caribbean spirit to create an other-worldly villa in a dream-like setting - in tune with the sky, sea and sand.

The villa's main Baroque Pavilion houses an elegant living room, leading to a kitchen and pantry, separated by a Koi pond, with a shaded breakfast terrace and dining terrace on either side.

Across a patio is a meditation deck - a raised platform framed by monolithic sculptures looking out to sea - and a path leading to the 'Caribbean', 'Blue' and 'Master' bedroom pavilions: beautifully light and airy with panoramas of wave-washed shorelines, forested coves and inspiring sea-views. This is the most original escape in the Caribbean.
